

Appendix F

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Center for California Native Nations (CCNN) would like to acknowledge the Pechanga Tribal Government for their support of this research. We would also like to thank the Pechanga Development Corporation and the California Nations Indian Gaming Association (CNIGA) for initiating this project. Numerous people contributed to this various sections of this report. Below, each research team acknowledges those who contributed to that specific report. In addition to the research teams, the Center would like to thank MaryAnn Beaman for applying her considerable creative skills to the overall report design.

The political science research team would like to offer our thanks to all of the tribes and local governments that completed surveys for this project. Your cooperation and contribution made part of this research possible. The economics group would like to thank Phillip Babcock, Marc Law and Jonathan Taylor for their comments and Kali (Duke) Chowdhury, Michelle Chu, Shurti Kapoor, Louis Tuthill, Kazuo Murakoshi, Jae hee Son, and Louis Tuthill for their excellent research assistance. The political science group would like to thank Francis A. Hallowell, The Honorable Deron Marquez, Anthony Miranda, and Mark Neiswender for their help in developing and fielding the surveys of California Indian and other local government officials. And a general thank you goes to anyone we may have missed who offered insights or support along the way.